ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS.

 For the following Corrections we are principally indebted to A Friend to Accuracy, and G. H. W.

Vol. LXXXV. Part I.

P. 380. It is stated that on the death of Thomas last Viscount Wentworth, the Barony of Wentworth devolved upon his sister Lady Milbanke. This is incorrect, as the late Viscount had three sisters. Judith, the eldest, married to Sir Ralph Milbanke; Elizabeth, married to Sir James Bland Burgess, bart.; and Sophia, married to Nathaniel Lord Scarsdale. Lady Burgess died without issue; but there is issue still remaining from Lady Scarsdale, as well as from Lady Milbanke, and, consequently, if the Barony of Wentworth is a Barony in fee, originating in a writ of summons, it must now be in abeyance between Lady Milbanke and the issue of her sister Lady Scarsdale, and not the particular inheritance of either.

474, a. l. 42. The heir to Mr. Kynnersley's large estates is the Countess of Ormonde and Ossory.

Vol. LXXXV. Part II.

92, b. The late Samuel Whitbread, esq. M. P. was the only son of his father of the same name by his first wife Harriet, the daughter of Mr. Hayton, an eminent attorney-at-law of London, and not by his second marriage with Lady Mary Cornwallis. See Gent. Mag. vol. LXVI. p. 531.

464, b. l. 9, read Baron's Court, the seat of the Marquis of Abercorn.

475, a. l. 53. Lord Molesworth was a Major-general in the Army, and Lieut.-col.
